October is National Arts & Humanities Month.

Here is President Biden's proclamation.

Here is Governor Evers' proclamation.

QUOTE OF THE DAY

"Art is the desire of a man to express himself, to record the reactions of his personality to the world he lives in." – Amy Lowell

"A book is the only place in which you can examine a fragile thought without breaking it, or explore an explosive idea without fear it will go off in your face. It is one of the few havens remaining where a man's mind can get both provocation and privacy." – Edward P. Morgan

"Vision is the true creative rhythm." – Robert Delaunay

"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by the dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions and spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who, at worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly; so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory or defeat." – Theodore Roosevelt

"Do not go gentle into that good night, Old age should burn and rave at close of day; Rage, rage against the dying of the light." – Dylan Thomas

"In real life, I assure you, there is no such thing as algebra." - Fran Lebowitz
